

MQM Is A Political & Revolutionary Movement And Wants To Demolish Feudal System From Pakistan-Dr Saleem Danish

London 15 February, 2009 The Organizer of MQM UK Unit Dr Saleem Danish said that MQM is a political and revolutionary movement and wants to demolish feudal system in Pakistan and create such system where there is no difference between rich and poor. He was addressing a gathering in Allama Iqbal Community centre at Peterborough. In this gathering people from Azad Kashmir, Punjab and various parts of Pakistan were present.

He further said that MQM wants equal rights for the people of Pakistan without making any difference on the basis of cast, colour and creed. This is only possible if we follow the philosophy of Quaid-e-Tehreek Altaf Hussain based on Realism and Practicalism. He further said that MQM believes on action rather than saying which was demonstrated at the time of earth quake in Azad Kashmir and Balochistan where workers of MQM worked by not taking care of their lives served the people of the affected areas.

Dr Saleem Danish Further said that the success of Saleem But as a deputy speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Kashmir and Tahir Khokar as a minister is the success of Altaf Hussain's philosophy which is spreading swiftly. From this gathering the nominated candidate for the Parliament from Labour party Eddy Murphy and former mayor of Peterborough Chaudhary Muhammad Ayub and Member of Organizing Committee MQM UK Unit Sohail Khanzada ,Abdul Haleem and Ali Murtaza also addressed the people.
