

Middle Class Leadership Is Essential For the Progress & Development of Pakistan – MQM UK

London 19th February, 2009The members of organizing committee MQM UK Unit Dr. Sarwar Khan and Muhammad Mansha Khan while addressing to a gathering of workers and supporters in Sheffield said that middle class leadership is essential for the progress and development of Pakistan. Large number of people from Sheffield, Manchester and other cities belonging to various parts of Pakistan were present. They further said that MQM is only political party who not only raised voice for the rights of poor and middle class people but also made a landmark in the history of Pakistan by sending educated and honest people in the parliament. The philosophy of MQM is spreading all over Pakistan and people from different ethnic backgrounds are amalgamating under the flag of MQM. The nominated representatives of MQM always proved them selves whenever opportunity arises. Mustafa Kamal is an example of it after being nominated among the top three mayors of the world. They further advised the people in the gathering to understand the philosophy and causes of negative propaganda spread about MQM and play their vital role for the elimination of poverty, injustice and feudal system.
